

AMENDING SECTION 74 OF THE JUDICIAL CODE.

---

JANUARY 6, 1921.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.

---

Mr. WALSH, from the Committee on the Judiciary, submitted the following REPORT.

[To accompany S. 4682.]

The Committee on the Judiciary, to which was referred the bill (S. 4682) to amend section 74 of the Judiciary Code, as amended, having had the same under consideration, reports it back to the House with the recommendation that the bill be passed without amendment.

According to the language of section 74, as now found in the Judicial Code, provision is made for holding legal terms of court at Hartford and New Haven, Conn. The only change effected by this bill is to provide for the holding of terms of the district court at Norwalk, Conn.

In order to make certain that the proposed change in the existing law would not entail additional expenditure to the Federal government, the usual proviso, that suitable rooms and accommodations for the holding of these terms and for the use of the officers of the court at Norwalk should be furnished without any expense to the Government of the United States, was inserted in the bill.

